

What word would you use to describe an effective process to engage this team?

If our RCC is successful, what would we see people doing?

sharing ideas

Sharing information

Attending school in person

Would see greater confidence in school's strategy. Potentially more attending school in person

Using data to drive decisions

Stepping in to help others where they might fall short

Making decisions based on input received.

Readily promoting end goals to others

Decisions being made with health and safety first.

If our RCC is successful, what would we see people doing?

playing together

Children and teachers back in school.

If our RCC is successful, what would we hear people saying?

That they feel bought in to the plan.

Proud to be DCPS!

"The cluster has a solid plan"

This plan is tailored to what our school community needs

This is so much less overwhelming than I thought it would be!

glad that multiple voices were involved

DCPS Cares!

That the voice of all stakeholders was included in OUR school-specific reopening plan.

We actually "re-opened strong."

If our RCC is successful, what would we hear people saying?

The plan is solid, clear, and I feel like kids, teachers and staff are safe

I feel confident teaching and sending my child to school.

"I feel confident with the plan""Glad decisions were not rushed they were thoughtfully created"
